

MMF Spring Bio 2017 EXTERNAL – Budapest

Stacey Godfrey Evans

Attorney

S.G. Evans Law, LLC

 @StaceyEvansHD42

Smyrna, GA

Stacey Godfrey Evans currently serves as a Georgia State Representative for House District 42, which includes parts of Smyrna and Marietta. She has served for six years. Stacey has authored and passed notable legislation, in a bi-partisan fashion, to restore cuts to the HOPE Grant program, which has re-opened the door to higher education for thousands of Georgians. She also practices law through S.G. Evans Law, LLC where she represents individuals and businesses in complex litigation. She previously practiced law with Powell, Goldstein, Frazer & Murphy, LLP, which merged with Bryan Cave, LLP. A life-long Georgian, she is originally from Ringgold and was the first person in her family to graduate from college. She earned her undergraduate degree in Economics and Political Science and her law degree, cum laude, from the University of Georgia. She is Chair of the Board of Directors for the Smyrna Public Safety Foundation and serves on the Board of Communities in Schools of Marietta/Cobb County. She is also a member of the Kennesaw State University Political Science Department Advisory Board.

Hermione Malone

Director, Workforce Readiness & Supplier Diversity

Cleveland Clinic

 @mimiinclc

Cleveland, OH

Hermione Malone currently serves as Director of Supplier Diversity for Cleveland Clinic in Cleveland, OH. Prior to this she was the Supplier Diversity Project Manager at Cleveland Clinic where she created the corporate supplier diversity strategy to include metrics, policies and protocols designed to increase Cleveland Clinic spend with minority-, women-, and veteran-owned companies, among others. Her previous professional experience includes Community Outreach Manager at Seidman Cancer Center in Cleveland and as the inaugural KeyBank Administrative Fellow at University Hospitals in Cleveland. Hermione has also worked as a professional journalist at numerous U.S. based newspapers, including The Boston Globe, from 1999 to 2003. She completed her M.B.A. in Marketing and Entrepreneurship at Case Western Reserve University in 2005 and her B.S. in Journalism at Florida A&M University in 1998.

Andrés J. Mantilla

Senior Vice President

Ceis Bayne East Strategic LLC

 @andresito_Man

Seattle, WA

Andrés J. Mantilla is Senior Vice President at Ceis Bayne East Strategic LCC where he heads all community engagement and outreach strategies for the firm. He brings extensive experience in community outreach and engagement, business-to-business relations and public policy. Prior to joining CBE Strategic, Andrés served as Business Services Manager and Strategic Advisor to the City of Seattle's Office of Economic Development where he guided the city's relationships with neighborhood business districts to form multi-year commercial revitalization strategies. He also served on community engagement team for Seattle Mayor Greg Nickels. He holds a degree from the University of California, Santa Barbara in Latin American Political Studies and Spanish.

